

Romaisaa Mohasab

-Teaching Assistant, Islamic
architecture, Cairo University,
Cairo, Egypt

romy.mehassab@gmail.com

Egyptian

Date of birth:

October 26, 1993

Marital status: Married

+2 01011364330

+2 01020321519

Summary

Dr. Romaisaa Raafat Mohasab is a highly dedicated Teaching Assistant and Master's Researcher in Islamic Architecture at Cairo University, graduating at the top of her class with Excellent with Honors (90.1%). Proven expertise in academic instruction, architectural documentation, and historical research, currently specializing in medieval Islamic architecture of the Tughluq Dynasty in Delhi. Professionally certified by UNESCO in digital heritage preservation and virtual museum technologies. Passionate about blending traditional archaeological methodologies with modern digital documentation techniques to advance academic research and higher education.

Academic Appointment

Teaching Assistant (2022 – Present)

- Department of Islamic Architecture, Faculty of Architecture, Cairo University Deliver undergraduate tutorials and practical sessions on Islamic art, Architecture, and Architecture methodologies.
- Assist senior faculty members in curriculum development, examination grading, and academic student advising.
- Participate actively in department boards, academic seminars, and cultural heritage documentation projects executed by the faculty.

Education

- Master of Arts in Islamic Architecture (In Progress) 2022 – Present Faculty of Architecture, Cairo University.
- Research Thesis: "Islamic Architecture in the Era of Tughluq Dynasty in Delhi (721-815 AH / 1321-1412 AD): An Archaeological Architectural Study".
- Scope: Detailed field and archival study focusing on structural engineering, decorative motifs, and socio-political influences on Indo-Islamic architecture.
- Bachelor of Arts in Architecture (Islamic Architecture Department) May 2016
- Faculty of Architecture, Cairo University.
- Cumulative Grade: Excellent with Honors.
- Percentage & Score: 90.1% (829 / 920).
- Ranking: Graduated at the top tier of the department class.

Certificates and Professional Training

UNESCO National Training Certification July 12 – 16, 2026

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) & Egyptian National Commission for UNESCO.

- Program: "The Role of UNESCO in Building the Capacities of Museum Professionals in Creating Virtual Tours."
- Venue: Hosted at the Faculty of Architecture, Cairo University.
- Acquired Skills: Digital heritage documentation, 360-degree virtual tour integration, multimedia storytelling for museums, and advanced museum capacity building techniques.

Research interests & Core skills

- Research Specializations: Medieval Indo-Islamic Architecture, Tughluq Dynasty Heritage, Architectural Documentation, and Islamic Epigraphy.
- Digital & Technical Competencies: Virtual Tour Development, Digital Heritage Mapping, Museum Cataloging, and Academic Lecturing.
- Languages: Arabic (Native), English (Professional/Academic Proficiency).

Computer Skills:

- Windows (Very Good)
- Microsoft Word (Very Good)
- Internet (Very Good)
- Photoshop (Very Good)
- Illustrator (Very Good)
- Photogrammetry (Very Good)